

abog 2007

Wyatt R. (Rory) Hume, DDS, Ph.D. Provost and Executive Vice President - Academic and Health Affairs, University of California. Dr. Hume was appointed Vice President for Academic and Health Affairs in September 2005 and Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic and Health Affairs in June 2006. Born and educated in South Australia, he qualified first in dentistry and then in human physiology and pharmacology, being awarded a PhD in 1973 by the University of Adelaide for research into nerve-muscle interactions in small blood vessels. Following government service as a dentist, he came to UCLA in 1975 as a postdoctoral research fellow in the Department of Pharmacology, School of Medicine.

Carina Celesia Moore, M.A. is the Director of Staff Development, Work Life and Child/Family Services in Human Resources at UC Davis. The popular UC Davis talent development program, "Management Services Officers (MSOs) for the Future" has been under her direction. Moore has worked on several UC systemwide education and development initiatives and was Director of the northern UC Management Skills Assessment Program (MSAP). She also has taught at UC Davis Extension and has served as part-time faculty at CSU Sacramento in the Graduate Career Counselor Education Department. Moore earned a Master of Arts degree in curriculum and teaching from Columbia University.

Ron Oshima is the Director of Systemwide Training and Organizational Effectiveness at UCOP. His unit is responsible for the development and delivery of training and consulting at OP and the facilitation and support of systemwide training initiatives. Ron's education includes certificates in leadership education from Harvard University and UCLA and degrees from Stanford University and San Francisco State University. Prior to joining UCOP, Oshima's professional experience included a management role at LBNL and leadership and management consulting to institutions in higher education, public utilities, financial services, and health maintenance organizations.

Loretta Love Huff is the President and Principal Consultant of Emerald Harvest Consulting, LLC, your Performance Improvement Partner™. She is a seasoned corporate executive with over 30 years of experience in human resources, information systems, commercial lending, and market research management. Over the last six years, as a leadership & career coach and performance improvement consultant, Loretta has helped clients optimize their performance and accomplish their business and personal goals. She brings enthusiasm, compassion and a sense of practicality and realism to her work.

Dr. Lisa Barron is a faculty member of Organization and Management at The Paul Merage School of Business, University of California, Irvine. Her principal research and teaching interests focus on negotiation, organizational behavior, and strategic communication. She has consulted with large and small organizations and has taught negotiation techniques to executives, career counselors, and faculty. Her coaching and consulting focuses on negotiation, leadership and becoming a more effective and fulfilled performer at work. She also facilitates team meetings.

Susan M. Thomas holds the position of University Counsel in the Office of the General Counsel for The Regents of the University of California. She has been with the University since August 1979, including serving two-and-a-half years as General Counsel at UC Hastings College of the Law. Ms. Thomas is counsel to The Regents Committee on Audit, to the Senior Vice President for Business and Finance, and Internal Audit. Her areas of practice include business, finance, audit, governance, research compliance, collective bargaining, and Department of Energy laboratory management.

Patrick Reed joined the University of California Systemwide office in November 1994 as University Auditor reporting directly to the Board of Regents. In this capacity he is responsible for the internal audit program conducted throughout the UC System. It is an internal audit program consisting of approximately 120 professionals in 12 offices. Prior to joining the University, Pat was with KPMG for 22 years in their Kansas City and Phoenix offices. As an Audit Partner, Pat's clients included principally financial institutions, governmental entities and not-for-profit organizations. Pat is a 1971 graduate of Rockhurst College in Kansas City, Mo.

Carole. R. Rossi has served as University Counsel in the Office of General Counsel since 1999, including serving as Deputy Campus Counsel at the University of California, San Francisco campus in 2003-2004. Ms. Rossi graduated class valedictorian from Hastings College of the Law in 1988. After completing a one-year clerkship for Chief Judge Robert F. Peckham in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, she practiced at the San Francisco law firm of Hanson Bridgett, where she represented both public and private sector employers in employment and labor litigation, and handled a general employer advice practice.

Michael D. Young has been Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at UC Santa Barbara since January 1990. He is responsible for all the departments in the Division of Student Affairs, which include, among others, Admissions, Financial Aid, Office of the Registrar, Women's Center, Recreation, the Educational Opportunity Program, Arts & Lectures, the MultiCultural Center, Student Health, Counseling & Career Services, and the Office of Student Life. In addition, he serves as the institutional control point for issues pertaining to Isla Vista and child care. Vice Chancellor Young received his Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from the University of Iowa, his M.A. in history from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, and his B.A. in history from Beloit College in Wisconsin.

Phillip Berman joined the faculty of the University of California, Santa Cruz in July of 2006 where he serves as Professor and Chair of the Department of Biomolecular Engineering. Dr. Berman is a Biotech Industry veteran with extensive experience in Discovery Research and Manufacturing Process Development. He earned his B.A. in Biology at the University of California, Berkeley, and received a Ph.D. in Biochemistry at Dartmouth Medical School (Hanover, NH). He received post-doctoral training at the Salk Institute for Biological Studies (La Jolla, CA) and the University of California, San Francisco where he worked with Biotech pioneer, and Genentech founder, Dr. Herbert Boyer. Dr. Berman serves on the Scientific Advisory Board of AVIP, a European Union supported HIV vaccine development program and has served as an advisor and consultant on various WHO committees focusing on HIV and other infectious diseases such as SARS.

Frank Zwart, Associate Vice Chancellor, UCSC, has served as Campus Architect at the University of California, Santa Cruz, since August 1988. Prior to joining the University, Mr. Zwart worked in architectural firms in Carmel, Aptos, Santa Monica and Los Angeles, California, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and in Princeton, New Jersey. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1971, with honors in mathematics and college honors from Cowell College at the University of California, Santa Cruz, where he was a Regents' Scholar.

Randolph (Randy) Scott is Executive Director of Human Resources and Benefits Policy and Program Design. Previously, he served as Chief Human Resources Officer at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. Scott began his career in human resources at Diamond Shamrock Corporation and then J.C. Penney. He then moved to the medical carrier side, first with Alliance Blue Cross Blue Shield and then Kaiser Permanente, providing leadership for all human resources functions. Prior to joining the Lawrence Berkeley Lab, Scott was the Senior Human Resources Executive for the California division of Kaiser Permanente. Scott currently serves as President-elect of the Northern California Human Resource Management Association and is Vice President and Board Trustee of the San Francisco Fine Arts Museums. He has a B.A. in liberal arts from West Virginia College and a master's in educational administration from West Virginia University.

Regent Eddie Island is a retired attorney and executive. Prior to his retirement in 1998, Mr. Island served as a vice president for McDonnell-Douglas Corporation where he led the law, intellectual property and governmental affairs departments throughout his tenure. Previously, he served as assistant general counsel for the Pacific Enterprises Corporation for 24 years where he handled issues related to both state and federal regulatory law. Mr. Island's experience also includes service as a member and treasurer of the California Science Center Board and chairman of the McDonnell Douglas Corporation Employees Community Fund. He earned a Juris Doctorate degree from Harvard Law School. Mr. Island was appointed to a 12-year term as a Regent in 2005 by Governor Schwarzenegger.